Pastor's Message

This coming week ends with the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ. While Jesus had been in Jerusalem many times before, He knew that His time was drawing near. During his earthly ministry, Jesus prepared the disciples to spread the Good News of His resurrection. He also admonishes us as believers to follow the same teachings of the Word of God and share with the world. As we read the Bible that He has given us, remember to share it through your actions and words.

For your protection and those around you, please consider wearing a face covering. Masks are available in the back of the room.

Serving God starts with an understanding of the way He has wired you. What are you good at? What are you not good at?

Here at Vines Christian Fellowship, we have many areas where your talent and gifts could be used. If God is leading you to serve in some capacity, please reach out to a staff member to get a better understanding of where you fit best.

As God graciously grows Vines Christian Fellowship, more serving opportunities are becoming available. Currently seeking assistance in the following ministry area:

ASST ADMIN: Help in preparing Sunday bulletins and creating activity flyers (knowledge of Microsoft Office programs: Word, Power Point, Excel).

Contact Mario Reyes or Mikki Bowers for more information.
